

Kazunori Yamaguchi has been a research associate at the University of Tokyo since 1981. His research interests include computer graphics, database systems, software engineering, formal software, and operating systems. He received the BSc degree in mathematics and the MSc degree in information science from the University of Tokyo in 1979 and 1981.

Naota Inamoto received the BS degree in physics in 1983 from the University of Tokyo. He is a Master's student in the Department of Information Science at the University of Tokyo. His interests are in computer architecture, computer graphics, and programming languages.

Tosiyasu L. Kunii is guest editor of this issue. His biography and photo appear on pg. 17.

The authors can be contacted through the University of Tokyo, Dept. of Information Science, Faculty of Science, 7-3-1, Hongo, Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 113, Japan.