FEATURES

6 The Application of Minicomputers
   by David L. House
   Our guest editor for this issue mulls over the nonscience of minicomputer application.

7 Some Industrial Applications of Minicomputers
   by Russell A. Henzel
   A description of some successful applications in this key minicomputer field and how they got that way.

13 Communications and the Minicomputer
   by Christopher J. Ball
   The role of the minicomputer in today's data communications revolution.

22 Minicomputers and the Hospital
   by Frederick C. Moses
   A survey of several minicomputer packages either recently installed or soon to be in operation.

28 Non-Logic Aspects of Logic Devices
   by Stephen F. Lundstrom
   A Computer Society workshop report.

30 Computers and Freedom
   by Robert M. Gordon
   The Forum on Social Implications examines individuality and automation.

32 The Compleat St. Patrick's Almanac
   by Jim Haynes
   A potpourri from the Cookbook

34 Computer Society Strengthens Chapter Activities
   by Steven S. Yau Including Distinguished Visitors Program For 1971-1972

DEPARTMENTS

5 Calendar

42 Call for Papers

39 News and Notices

43 Repository

46 New Products

48 Classified