Computer Society sponsored or cosponsored conferences are indicated by an asterisk; other conferences, not sponsored by the Computer Society but of interest to our readers, are also included.

JANUARY

NMA Mid-Winter Meeting, January 15-17, Atlanta, Georgia. Contact the Conference Director, National Microfilm Association, 8728 Colesville Road, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

Second Annual Symposium on Computer Architecture, January 20-22, University of Houston, Texas. Contact Dr. Willis King, Dept. of Computer Science, University of Houston, Texas 77004.

International Meeting on Minicomputers and Data Communication, January 20-22, Liege, Belgium. Contact Prof. A. Danthine, Universite de Liege, Avenue des Tilleuls 49, B-4000 Liege, Belgium.

Microprocessors and Microcomputers Symposium, January 22, Newark, New Jersey. Contact Continuing Education, Newark College of Engineering/New Jersey Institute of Technology, 323 High St., Newark, NJ 07102.

Optical Character Recognition Users Association Winter Conference, January 27-29, New Orleans, Louisiana. Session topics include alphanumeric hand print, new credit card development, NRMA standards, OCR economics, future of OCR, and a tour of a local OCR facility. Contact T. David McFarland, Assistant to the President, OCRUA, 505 Busse Highway, Park Ridge, IL 60068.

FEBRUARY

National Microfilm Association Seminar, February 4-6, Washington, D.C. Contact Training Coordinator Rita Tatis, National Microfilm Association, 8728 Colesville Road, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

Symposium on the Interface of Computer Science and Statistics, February 13-14, University of California, Los Angeles. Contact Dr. James Franke, BM17, UCLA Dept. of Mathematics, School of Medicine, Los Angeles, CA 90024; (213) 825-5778.

Operational Data Security Workshop, February 17-20, Orlando, Florida. Stresses the operational approach to data security problems faced by management, with emphasis on maintaining the continuity and credibility of the data processing operation. Operational Data Security Corporation, 6 Swarthmore Lane, Dix Hills, NY 11746.

MARCH

Medical Data Processing Symposium, March 3-6, Toulouse, France. Contact Conference Secretariat, IRIA Public Relations Dept., Domaine de Voluceau, 78150 Rocquencourt, France.

National Microfilm Association Seminar, March 4-6, Chicago, Illinois. Contact Training Coordinator Rita Tatis, National Microfilm Association, 8728 Colesville Road, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

1975 Electrical/Electronic/ISA Trade Show, March 10-11, Denver, Colorado. Contact Minetta Miller, Trade Show Director, 509 17th Street, Suite 212, Denver, CO 80202.

6th Annual Simulation Symposium, March 12-14, Tampa, Florida. For more information contact W. Kent Stow, General Electric Co., MD271, Aerospace Electronic Systems Dept., French Road, Utica, NY 13503.

Programming Languages and Compilers for Parallel and Vector Machines, March 18-19, New York City. Contact Paul B. Schnick, Goddard Institute for Space Studies, 2880 Broadway, New York, NY 10025.

Invitational Computer Conference, March 20, Atlanta, Georgia. Contact B. J. Johnson & Associates, 300 Otero, Newport Beach, CA 92660.

Seventh Annual Southeastern Symposium on System Theory, March 20-21, Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, and Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama. Papers describing new results involving system theory concepts and methodology will be presented, including both theoretical and applications-oriented papers presenting novel applications of recent theory. The symposium will be held on the campuses of both sponsoring institutions, which are within 20 miles of each other. For further information contact J. Fred O'Brien, Director, Engineering Extension Service, Auburn University, Auburn, AL 36830.

Workshop on Cognitive Robotic Systems, March 20-22, Pasadena, California. Limited to 75 participants selected on the basis of work summaries which may be of abstract or paper length. Send summaries to Dr. Meir Weinstein, 286-80 California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, CA 91125.

Workshop on Clinical Laboratory Computers, March 24-26, St. Louis, Missouri. Emphasis on hands-on experience, specification, and evaluation. Contact Dr. John Lewis, Division of Laboratory Medicine, Washington University, Barnes Plaza, St. Louis, MO 63110.

APRIL

2nd International Conference on Computers and the Humanities, April 3-8, Los Angeles, California. Contact ICCH/2, Founders Hall 407, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA 90007.

IEEE INTERCON/75—International Convention and Exposition, April 8-10, New York City. Contact Don Larson, Manager, IEEE INTERCON, 3600 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90010.

NMA Annual Conference and Exposition, April 8-11, Anaheim, California. For additional information on "Microactive Systems '75" contact the Conference Director, National Microfilm Association Headquarters, 8728 Colesville Road, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

4th International Congress on Reprography and Information, April 13-17, Hanover, Germany. Lectures provide comprehensive survey of reprographic methods and processes now available to effect speedier, more economical handling of information. Contact Deutsches Komitee fur Reprographie, Deutsche Messe-und Auseinandergenstande.

Missouri Symposium on Advanced Automation, April 14-16, Columbia, Missouri. Contact Dr. Frank P. Mathur, General Chairman, MSAA-75, 239 Electrical Engineering Bldg., University of Missouri, Columbia, MO 65201.

European Computing Congress, April 14-18, Brunel University, England. For information contact ONLINE, Brunel University, Uxbridge, Middlesex, England.

International Conference on Advances in Automatic Testing Technology, April 15-17, University of Birmingham, England. Contact the Joint Conference Secretariat, Institution of Electronic and Radio Engineers, 8-9 Bedford Square, London WC1B 3RG.

Milwaukee Symposium on Automatic Computation and Control, April 17-19, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Contact Dr. Richard A. DeMillo, General Chairman MSAC2-75, Electrical Engineering Department, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Wisconsin, WI 53201.

IEEE International Symposium on Circuits and Systems, April 21-23, Newton, Massachusetts. Contact Arvin Grabel, Dept. of Electrical Engineering, Northeastern University, 360 Huntington Ave., Boston, MA 02155.

International Conference on Reliable Software, April 22-25, Los Angeles, California. Contact Prof. Martin L. Shooman, Polytechnic Institute of New York, 333 Jay Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201.

Interface 75, Third Annual Data Communications Conference and Exposition, April 21-23, New Orleans, Louisiana. The program features in-depth applications panels addressing data communications usage in manufacturing, process control, banking, insurance, government, law enforcement, computer services, etc. Contact Kenneth A. Poleo, Conference Publicity Manager, 160 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701.

Electrical and Electronic Engineers in Israel, April 21-25, Tel-Aviv, Israel. Contact S. Weissenstern, POB 29234, Tel-Aviv, Israel.

Workshop on Currently Available Program Testing Tools: Technology and Experience, April 24-25, Los Angeles, California. Complements the 1975 Conference on Reliable Software by surveying the market of currently available program testing tools. Contact Dr. Rona B. Stillman, Workshop Chairman, National Bureau of Standards, TECH A265, Washington, D.C. 20034.

Association for Educational Data Systems Convention, April 28-May 2, Virginia Beach, Virginia. Contact AEDS Convention Coordinator, Charles D. Miller, Virginia Division of ADP. 8th Street Office Bldg., Richmond, VA 23219.

MAY

International I/O Systems 75 Seminar, May 3-6, Marbella, Spain. Contact I/O Systems Association, PO Box 1333, Stamford, CT 06904.

NEWCOM 75, May 6-8, Las Vegas, Nevada. Annual trade show for electronic distributors includes a series of morning seminars. Contact Electronic Industry Show Corp., 222 South Riverside Plaza, Chicago, IL 60606.

Carnahan Conference on Electronic Crime Countermeasures, May 7-9, Lexington, Kentucky. Contact George Byrne, Stanford Research Institute, Menlo Park, CA 94025.

Communications Technology, IEEE Region 6 Conference and Exhibit, May 7-9, Salt-Lake City, Utah. Contact R. O. Evans, Sperry Univac, 322 N. 22nd St., Salt Lake City, UT 84116.

International Science and Engineering Fair, May 12-17, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. High school students compete for ISEF and Special Awards, one awarded by the Computer Society. Contact Science Service, 1719 N Street N.W., Washington, D. C. 20036.

Electrical and Electronic Measurement and Test Instruments Conference, May 13-15, Ottawa, Canada. Contact R. F. Clark, National Research Council, Division of Physics, Bldg. M-36, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada KIA (not 0R6).

International Symposium on Multiple-Valued Logic, May 13-15, Bloomington, Indiana. Contact Dr. George Epstein, Dept. of Computer Science, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47401.

Intersociety Conference on Engineering Ethics, May 18-19, Baltimore, Maryland. Cooperating Societies include IEEE, ASME, ASCC, AICHE, and NSPE. For further information contact Dr. Carl Barus, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA 19081.

75 NCC, May 19-22, Anaheim, California. The 1975 National Computer Conference will feature "mini-programs" on methods and applications, science and technology, and societal issues. Contact AFIPS, 210 Summit Ave., Montvale, NJ 07645.

Conference on Computer Graphics, Pattern Recognition, and Data Structure, May 14-16, Los Angeles, California. Contact Dr. Tom Mincer, UCLA Extension, 6266 Boeotier Hall, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

Man-Computer Communications Conference, May 26-27, Ottawa, Canada. Sponsored by the Radio and Electrical Engineering Division of the National Research Council of Canada, the conference focuses on interactive computer graphics applications and techniques in industry, government, and universities. Contact M. K. Ward, Executive Secretary, Fourth Man-Computer Communications Conference, c/o National Research Council of Canada, Ottawa, Canada K1A 0R6.

JUNE

Symposium on Machine Processing of Remotely Sensed Data, June 3-4, West Lafayette, Indiana. Symposium will cover theory, implementation, and applications of machine processing remotely sensed data. Contact Prof. C. D. Gillham, Laboratory for Application of Remote Sensing, Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN 47907.

APL 75, June 11-13, Pisa, Italy. International congress for those involved in the development, implementation, and application of APL will be held at the Faculty of Engineering, University of Pisa; official language is English. Contact S. Trumpy, Local Coordinator, CNUCE, Via S. Maria, 36, 56100 Pisa, Italy.

Conference on Computers in the Undergraduate Curricula, June 16-18, Fort Worth, Texas. Multidisciplinary conference serves to open channels of communication between persons who have used, are using, or would like to use computers in undergraduate education. Contact CCUC/6, Texas Christian University, Computer Science Program, Fort Worth, TX 76129.

Computer Networks Symposium, June 18, Gaithersburg, Maryland. Annual one-day symposium sponsored by the Computer Society Eastern Area Committee, the Washington D. C. Chapter, and NBS is on "Trends and Applications 1975." Contact Computer Networks, PO Box 639, Silver Spring, MD 20901.

FTC-5, 1975 International Symposium on Fault-Tolerant Computing, June 18-20, Paris, France. The symposium will open a survey session directed toward first-time participants, followed by four half-day sessions and parallel short-paper sessions. Contact Prof. A. Avizienis, Computer Science Dept., Boeotier Hall 3731, University of California, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

Workshop on the Microarchitecture of Computer Systems, June 23-27, Monte-Carlo. Request invitations no later than March 15, 1975, from the Conference Chairman, Prof. F. Anceau, ENSIMAG, Cedex 53, 38 Grenoble Gare, France.

1975 National Conference of the Canadian Information Processing Society, June 24-26, Regina, Saskatchewan, CIPS conference encompasses three main themes: computers and society, computers and science, and computers and communications. For additional information contact A. G. Law, Mathematics Dept., University of Regina, Regina, Saskatchewan, SAS 0A2.

Second Annual Conference on Computer Graphics and Interactive Techniques, June 25-27, Bowling Green, Ohio. Contact David L. Fulton, Department of Computer Science, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH 43403.

INFO/EXPO 75, June 29-July 2, Atlanta, Georgia. For information on DPMA's International Data Processing Conference and Business Exposition, contact Martin H. Bowerman, Programs and Service Director, DPMA International Headquarters, 505 Busse Highway, Park Ridge, IL 60068.
