That's why they read association publications

- to learn what comes next
- when to expect it
- and where it might lead
- to get information
to help them plan wisely.

You can reach the money people through association publications
- where they'll be sure to get your message.

Have you ever known a business or professional leader who wasn't a member of an association?

Aren't you?

Society of National Association Publications
1510 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005
representing over 6 million readers