ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF CALIFORNIA EDUCATIONAL DATA PROCESSING ASSOCIATION (CEDPA)
and CALIFORNIA EDUCATIONAL
COMPUTING CONSORTIUM (CECC)
DECEMBER 11th, & 12th, 1975

At the Hyatt House at the Airport
(formerly the International Hotel)
Los Angeles

Keynote Speaker

Assemblyman
Mike Cullen
State of California
"Legislative Implications of Privacy, Security & Confidentiality"

Luncheon Speakers

Captain
Grace Murray Hopper
United States Navy"
"Possible Futures-Developments of Hardware, Software & Systems"

H. Wayne Nelson
Burroughs Corporation
"Data Base and Modular System Design—the Impact of these New System Design Technologies"

In addition there will be over 50 additional sessions of interest to teachers, faculty, staff and administrators representing all levels of education in California. For example:
The Use of Computers in Various Disciplines
CAI
Modeling & Simulation
Data Base Access
Computer Graphics
Computer-rated Test Generation
Computer Science
Mini-Computers

Architecture of Direct Access Storage Devices:
Their History and What’s on the Drawing Board Now.
Machine Readable Input to the State Department of Education
State of California Governmental Board on EDP
Management Information Systems
Facility Management
Management Problems in the Computer Facility
Confidentiality, Privacy and Security

For registration information, please contact:
Northern Area:
Donald E. Price
Director of Computer Services
University of Pacific
3601 Pacific Avenue
Stockton, CA 95211
(209) 946-2251

Southern Area:
Kenneth Tom
Director of Data Processing
California State University, Long Beach
6101 East 7th St.
Long Beach, Ca 90801
(213) 498-4193

For information regarding exhibit space, please contact:
Ellen Landers
Show Manager
Trade Show Specialists
17123 Chatsworth St. #10
Granada Hills, CA 91344
(213) 360-2786