TECHNICAL COMMITTEE ON

COMPUTING AND THE HANDICAPPED

The TC on Computing and the Handicapped is dedicated to promote the use of modern computer technology toward the design of devices for the handicapped. The TC strives to encourage interchange between scientists/engineers, clinicians and the handicapped community. The TC is seeking applications for membership from individuals interested in participating in activities sponsored by the committee such as workshops, symposia, tutorials, special sessions at conferences and a newsletter. There is no membership fee and IEEE Computer Society membership is encouraged, but not required.
