CALL FOR PAPERS

April 26-29, 1982
Austin, Texas
sponsored by
I.E.E.E. and A.C.M.

SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE
General Chairman
Steve Szygenda, Comsat General Integrated Systems
Vice Chairman
John Hughes, IBM
Program Committee Chairman
Jack Lipovski, University of Texas
Program Committee Vice Chairman
Miroslaw Malek, University of Texas
Treasurer
Glen Henry, IBM
Local Arrangements
Matt Blanton, Rolm
Publicity
Dennis Frailey, Texas Instruments
Publications
Tom Gunter, Motorola
Registration
Terry Wagner, University of Texas

Four copies of the manuscript (in English, not to exceed 20 double-spaced pages) are to be in the hands of the Program Committee Vice Chairman by November 1, 1981. Authors will be notified of the disposition of their papers by February 1, 1982.

Papers are solicited on any aspect of Computer Architecture. Topic areas include, but are not limited to, the following:

- High Speed Computers
- Control Schema
- Computer Arithmetic
- Architecture/Operating System Tradeoffs
- Impact of New Technologies
- Evaluation of Architecture Performance
- Testing and Maintenance
- CAD Systems
- Data Flow Architectures
- Distributed Architectures
- Special Purpose Architectures
- Data Base Architectures
- Communication and Network Architectures
- Hardware Description Languages
- Protection and Security Constructs
- Fault Tolerant Architectures
- Architectures Supporting Interpreted Execution
- Case Studies