Students in the early 1900's didn't have tools like the TRS-100 lap computer. Today, with floppy disks replacing ink wells and binders, classroom education is taking a whole new form.

Desk courtesy of Hodgson Antiques, 1007 Mission St., S. Pasadena, Calif.

Photo and cover design: Design & Direction