2017 Reviewer Thanks

We deeply appreciate the efforts of everyone who reviewed the many articles submitted to CiSE last year—the peer review process helps maintain the magazine’s revered quality. All of us in the computational science community owe gratitude to people who participate in this crucial service. Readers who would like to contribute as reviewers can visit www.computer.org/web/peer-review/magazines to find out how they can get involved. —CiSE’s Editorial Board and Staff
