IEEE MultiMedia extends its heartfelt thanks to all the reviewers who gave their time to review submitted manuscripts, offering comments on organization and clarity, questions of accuracy, disputed definitions, and the effectiveness of visual aids or other ancillary materials. By relying upon such dedicated professionals, we ensure the high quality of the peer-review process that serves as a cornerstone of any first-rate professional association publication. We encourage reviewers to continue to support IEEE MultiMedia and make themselves available to serve as reviewers in the years to come.
