"Ada to Silicon," the background art (from p. 31) created by Southern California artist Frank Dalton, is a unique illustration of a woman with an equally unique place in the history of computer science. Printed in full color on heavy, glossy stock and suitable for framing, this 18 x 24-inch poster is only $5.95 for Computer Society members; $7.95 for nonmembers. Prices include postage and handling. California residents add 6% sales tax.

To order "Ada to Silicon" (catalog number P25), please complete and return the coupon. Prepaid orders only, please.
