Software

PCTeX™ A full implementation of Donald Knuth's TeX™ for the IBM PC/XT or AT™ and compatibles, PCTeX allows typesetting of books, technical articles, documentation, and correspondence on the personal computer. The basic PCTeX package includes three macro packages: PLAIN for beginning and intermediate users, LaTeX for document preparation, and AMSLaTeX for mathematical material. InteX, a system enhancer; font metric files; 5 DS/DD diskettes; and the PCTeX manual by Michael Spivak complete the package.

Device drivers interpret PCTeX commands for finished output in any of over 200 fonts. PCDOT drives numerous dot matrix printers by IBM, Epson, and Toshiba. PC Laser drives laser printers by Corona, Apple, QMS, HP, and Imagery. A Preciew program (with graphics adapter) allows viewing the final output before printing, and MF Medley provides 44 additional fonts from the Metafont library. Write for specific hardware requirements and a complete price list.

PCTeX $289.00  PCDOT $100.00  PC Laser $300.00

Essential Books

Recent advances in machine learning since the publication of Vol. I. Reflects the major expansion of the field through presentation of a wide range of results by leading authorities. An updated bibliography and glossary of terms are included.
Hardbound; ISBN 0-934613-00-1; $39.95; 1986

Readings in Knowledge Representation
Edited by Ronald Brachman and Hector Levesque
A carefully selected collection of seminal and recent papers on knowledge representation for text and reference use. Sections include work in associational, structured object, logic-based, procedural representations and production systems, and representations of common sense knowledge. Introductions to the papers and an extensive bibliography are provided.
Paperbound; ISBN 0-934613-03-6; $39.95; 1986

Research Notes in Artificial Intelligence
Copublished with Pitman Publishing, Ltd.
The Research Notes series consists of technical monographs in specialized areas of AI research. Manuscripts submitted for the series are evaluated by an international editorial board with Derek Sleeman of Stanford and NS Sridharan of BBN Labs as the main editors. Additional titles will be published in 1986.

A Critiquing Approach to Expert Computer Advice: ATTENDING By Perry Miller

Learning to Solve Problems by Searching for Macro-Operators By Richard Korf
Paperbound; ISBN 0-273-08690-1; $22.95; 1985

Heuristic Reasoning About Uncertainty: An Artificial Intelligence Approach By Paul Cohen
Paperbound; ISBN 0-273-08696-7; $22.95; 1985

LICAI-85 Los Angeles, California
The proceedings of the Ninth International Joint Conference on Artificial Intelligence present leading edge research in such areas as AI and education, automated reasoning, expert systems, knowledge representation, logic programming, natural language, and robotics. Paperbound, two volumes; ISBN 0-934613-02-8; $55 Nonmembers/Institutions, $40 AAAI members

VLDB-85 Stockholm, Sweden
The written record of the Eleventh Conference on Very Large Data Bases. Selected from 298 papers submitted from 32 countries, these 45 original papers explore fundamental issues and current development trends in data base research.
Paperbound; $35 Individuals, $55 Institutions

Conference proceedings for AAAI-83, -82, and -80; LICAI-83, -81, -79, -77, -75, -73, -71, and -69; and VLDB-84, -83, and -82 are also available. Write for complete list and prices.

Conference Proceedings

A chronicle of the first multidisciplinary gathering of researchers in this area, this volume explores the theory and application of reasoning about knowledge in distributed system analysis, natural language processing, economic modeling, and game theory. Original papers and overviews from leading researchers document the emergence of an important field.
Paperbound; ISBN 0-934613-04-4; $18.95; 1986

AAAI-84 Austin, Texas
The proceedings of the Fourth National Conference on Artificial Intelligence presents some of the most important recent work. Refereed papers represent the full spectrum of current AI research.
Paperbound; ISBN 0-8867-084-3; $45 Nonmembers/Institutions, $30 AAAI members

To Order

Please request books by quantity, title, author, ISBN number, and price. To enclose full payment, add $1.50 for first volume and $0.50 for each additional volume for book rate, U.S. shipment.
