Message from the AsiaJCIS 2018 Program Co-Chairs

The 13th Asia Joint Conference on Information Security (abbreviated as AsiaJCIS 2018) is held in Guilin, China on August 8–9, 2018.

The AsiaJCIS conference series is an established forum to present new results from the academic research community as well as from the industry. For AsiaJCIS2018, we received submissions of 24 papers and selected 17 papers under severe reviews, in which each submission was reviewed by at least three reviewers.

The accepted papers cover wide ranges of research fields from system security to cryptography, fundamental to applied security including hot topics.

We would like to thank the members of the program committee and organizing committee, keynote speaker, invited speakers, reviewers, and authors who have contributed to the success of this conference.

Yong Ding, Guilin University of Electronic Technology, China
Jungsuk Song, KISTI, Korea
Akira Kanaoka, Toho University, Japan
Raylin Tso, National Chengchi University, Taiwan
