Welcome to Huntsville! Our symposium this year includes a collection of very interesting papers from a diverse set of backgrounds. An important strength of our ECBS community is its strongly international flavor. Surely one of the best ways to disseminate ECBS ideas and extend our own professional competence is to exchange ideas with people working in the same general field but from a different context. We plan to provide plenty of scope for that exchange of ideas.

Byron Purves