Message from the Conference Chairs

It is our great pleasure to extend a welcome to all of you who are participating in ICIS 2005, the Fourth International Conference on Computer & Information Science (ICIS 2005), which is being held at the Ramada Plaza Hotel, Jeju Island, South Korea. The conference is sponsored by the Korea Information Processing Society (KIPS), Korea and the International Association for Computer and Information Science (ACIS), U.S.A.

This conference is aimed at discussing with all of you, the wide range of problems encountered in present and future high technologies. The purpose of ICIS 2005 is to bring together researchers and practitioners from industry, academia, and government to the advanced state of the art in Computer and Information Science and to encourage wider collaboration between academics and industries.

We would like to thank Professor Dr. Walter Dosch, our Keynote Speaker who is the Director of Institute of Software Technology and Programming Languages, University of Luebeck, Germany; the program chairs; the publicity chairs; the members of our program committee for their work in this conference; and the administrative staff at the KIPS and ACIS Headquarters. We hope that ICIS is enjoyable to all participants at ICIS 2005.

We hope you enjoy the conference and your stay in Jeju Island!
