Welcome to AAI 2013. Welcome to Matsue, Japan.

The 2nd IIAI International Conference on Advanced Applied Informatics (IIAI-AAI 2013) is by sponsored by the International Institute of Applied Informatics, Japan in cooperation with Kyushu University. The conference is held at Kunibiki Messe, Matsue, Japan.

The purpose of AAI is to bring together researchers and practitioners from academia, industry, and government to exchange their research ideas and results and to discuss the state of the art in the areas of the conference. Five sub-conferences, the 4th International Conference on e-Services and Knowledge Management (ESKM), the 2nd International Conference on Learning Technologies and Learning Environments (LTLE), the 2nd International Conference on Institutional Research and Institutional Management (IRIM), the 1st International Conference on Smart Computing and Artificial Intelligence(ICSCAI), and the 1st International Conference on Applied Computing and Information Technology(ACIT) are held with the AAI 2013. The AAI has general sessions and proposed 2 special sessions. In addition, the participants of the conference will have a chance to hear from renowned invited speakers Prof. Mario Koeppen of Kyushu Institute of Technology, Japan, Prof. Gwo-Jen Hwang of National Taiwan University of Science and Technology, Taiwan, and Prof. Vilas Wuwongse of Thammasat University, Thailand.

We would like to thank the Program Chair Dr. Kiyota Hashimoto, the Local Arrangement Chair Dr. Yasuhiro Yamada, the organization staff, and the members of the Program Committee for their hard work. And most importantly, we would like to thank all the authors for sharing their ideas and experiences through their outstanding papers contributed to the conference. I hope that AAI 2013 will be successful and enjoyable to all participants.

Sachio Hirokawa
Kyushu University, Japan
Conference General Chair, IIAI AAI2013
August, 2013