Acknowledgment

The outstanding originality and diversity of the intellectual focus brought to bear by the conference's various contributors will, we hope, benefit everyone who is joining us in the integration of science and art. No doubt, the intellectual breadth, research, and the empirical scope of the present programme attests to the theme of IV'97 “From Research to Practice.” The discoveries, presentations, and elaboration of these wide-ranging disciplines are the result of many diverse factors and we are indebted to a variety of persons.

Throughout the preparation of this conference, we have received help, encouragement and support from various members and I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to everyone. Special thanks go to the conference committee members—for their constructive comments on the various aspects of the programme as well as on reviews of the papers—to whom we remain beholden in every sense of the word.

IV'97 Programme Committee

Professor Michael L.V. Pitteway (UK),
Professor Arie E. Kaufman (USA),
Professor Przemyslaw Rokita (Poland),
Professor Hassan Said (Malaysia),
Dr Keith Unsworth (New Zealand),
Professor Rida T. Farouki (USA),
Dr Wenping Wang (IIong Kong),
Professor Nick England (USA),
Dr Hang Khanh Du (Kuwait ),
Professor Fumihiko Kimura (Japan),
Dr Leonardo Traversoni (Mexico),
Dr Ma Lizhuang (China),
Professor Vladimir Prokhorov (Russia),
Dr Qu. Ruibin (Singapore),
Dr Kunio Kondo (Japan),
Dr Jean-Francis Balaguer (Switzerland).

I also thank the members of the organising committee and the technical program organiser for their on-hand support whenever team spirit was essential.

Organising Committee

Dr F. Khosrowshahi (South Bank University),
Mr Neil Weightman (South Bank University),
Dr Fiaz Hussain (De-Montfort University),
Mr Sirjit Singh (University of Westminster),
Mr A. Aljamali (South Bank University),
Mr Mark Holden (South Bank University).

Technical Programme Organiser

Mr A.Sabaghi (ELATT).
I also thank Ms D'Pour of GraphicsLink for her sustained services in preparation, organising, and handling of the conference's administration and also her production of many of the pieces of literature connected with the conference. I must also express my gratitude to Ms Penny Storms of the IEEE Computer Society Press in California for her editorial role in publishing the IV'97 proceedings.

Foremost, I am grateful to all the contributors who gave their valuable time to share their new thoughts and achievements with us at IV'97. Finally, I wish to thank those whom, from beyond the borders of Great Britain, have borne the trouble of this journey for the sake of knowledge.