The conference event and the Proceedings are the work of many members of the Program Committee, the Organizing Committee, all the Reviewers, Technical members and administrative team, and most importantly, the contributors to whom we remain beholden in every sense of the word.

Finally, I would offer my sincere thanks to Anita D'Pour of GraphicsLink for her continuous effort in preparing, organizing and handling of the conference's administration. My appreciation to Frances Titsworth and the IEEE Computer Society Publication team for their high standard of editorial production of the Proceedings.
