Abstract
This presentation will focus on the second call for Objective 3.7 on "Network Embedded and Control Systems", opening on June 2007, with a closing date on October 2007. Please find details at http://cordis.europa.eu/fp7/ict/

Short Biography
Mercè Griera is project officer at the European Commission's Information Society and Media Directorate General. She works in the Seven Framework Programme for Research and Development, concretelly in the area of Embedded Systems. She entered the Commission in 1993 in the area of Research Networking, she moved to High Performance Computing and Networking and to Communications Technologies. Before joining the European Commission, she was technical director of CAETI (Generalitat de Catalunya) and lecturer and researcher at the Autonomous University of Barcelona.