Workshop on Education and Training (WET)

Workshop moderators: Heidi Ellis, Rensselaer at Hartford
Richard Mitchell, InferData Corporation

WET, the TOOLS Workshop on Education and Training, will focus on the relationship between industry and academia, concentrating on two loosely-related themes:

- In educating and training the next generation of software engineers, what should academia do and what should industry do?
- How can industry and academia further exploit the Internet for education and training?